“Leadership comes in many shapes and forms and is sometimes unexpected. I will continue to exhibit leadership daily by setting goals & meeting expectations. I also commit to embodying these ideas as I move forward in my education and career.”

“I find it extremely important to help those who are most vulnerable in society, so it is a priority of mine to help the community in any way possible. I have learned an enormous amount about myself and the perspectives I have on life from my experiences of service inside and outside the community.”

“Volunteering has taught me about responsibility and organization, in thought and in action. It’s given me purpose at times and shown me there’s happiness in giving. Volunteering, to me, is really about compassion.”
